

Principles and Practice of Engineering Examination (PE Exam) Failures

Dear Examinee:

This is to inform you that you did not obtain a satisfactory grade on the recent written examination administered by the North Carolina State Board of Examiners for Engineers and Surveyors. In order to be licensed in accordance with Chapter 89C of the North Carolina General Statute you are required to pass this examination.

The Board of Examiners encourages you to make every effort to successfully complete the examination and licensure process. Any questions that you may have about your performance on this exam must be pursued within thirty (30) days of your receipt of this notification.

A candidate with a combination of three (3) failures or unexcused absences shall only be eligible for re-exam after 12 months from the last examination and additional requirements for multi-fails is enclosed.

To apply for re-examination please complete the "NC Re-Exam Form" located in the "Forms" section of our website. DO NOT SEND EXAM FEE TO NCBELS. EXAM FEES ARE PAID DIRECTLY TO NCEES UPON RE-REGISTRATION.

NC Board of Examiners deadline dates are:

Spring deadline: January 2 every year

Fall deadline: August 1 every year

Remember, NCEES deadline dates are different than NCBELS. See their website for current registration dates.

For the Board,

Andrew L Ritter
Executive Director
